The

CALVERTANA

VOLUME 31

Published by
The Senior Class
Calvert High School
Tiffin, Ohio

Foreword

The seniors of 1957 wish to dedicate Volume 31 of the Calvertana to their coach, teacher, and friend, Mr. Karl Zalar, better known to the students as "Zip".

As a teacher and coach Mr. Zalar has instilled in his students the determination to do their best in whatever they choose to do, schoolwork or sports. This quality has inspired many of his teams to victory. With this same earnestness Mr. Zalar has striven in his civics classes to teach the ideals of good government. And with this same determination, the head coach has begged, borrowed, and partially equipped the Industrial Arts Shop.

During his eight years at Calvert, Mr. Zalar has been more than a coach and teacher. As a friend to all the students, he has spent many hours of his spare time during the summer building ping-pong tables, locker room benches, and clothes racks.

It is not an unusual sight to see Mr. Zalar seriously discussing problems with one of his boys. And these boys know that the advice and encouragement comes from a Catholic man who sincerely lives his Religion.

So, it is with grateful hearts that the class of '57 dedicate Volume 31 to Mr. Karl Zalar, friend and teacher.

Dedication

MR. KARL ZALAR

Bishop of Toledo

His Excellency
MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, D.D.

This is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord setteth over his family, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Luke XII, 42

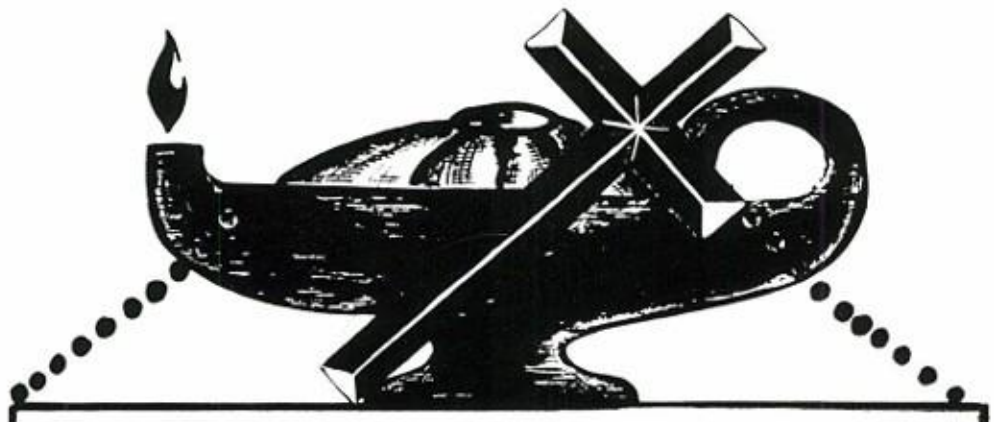
How well this quotation applies to our beloved Bishop! Bishop Rehring has proved to be an energetic and wise steward.

Always concerned about the spiritual condition of the diocese, he has established several new parishes and schools and enlarged the physical plants of many more. As an additional aid to sanctity and learning, a vocation organization, the Serra club, the K. of C., and other groups have been encouraged and helped. As a result, many converts have joined the Church and many fallen away Catholics have returned.

Realizing the necessity for an active, informed population, the Bishop has encouraged the Catholic Chronicle by word and by leading an active crusade for subscriptions each year. Study clubs of all sorts flourish in our diocese.

Calvert has received many benefits from our Bishop. Included among them are the new Calvert building, our principal and faculty, and a vocation club. Each spring he personally attends the Calvert graduation ceremony. Calvert is the only school outside Toledo which receives this distinction.

For all these benefits we are indebted to our bishop, Right Reverend George J. Rehring.



The lamp of learning, the beads of piety, and the Cross, the fulness of both, serve to instill a still greater appreciation of the faculty's efforts on our behalf.

Faculty

Principal

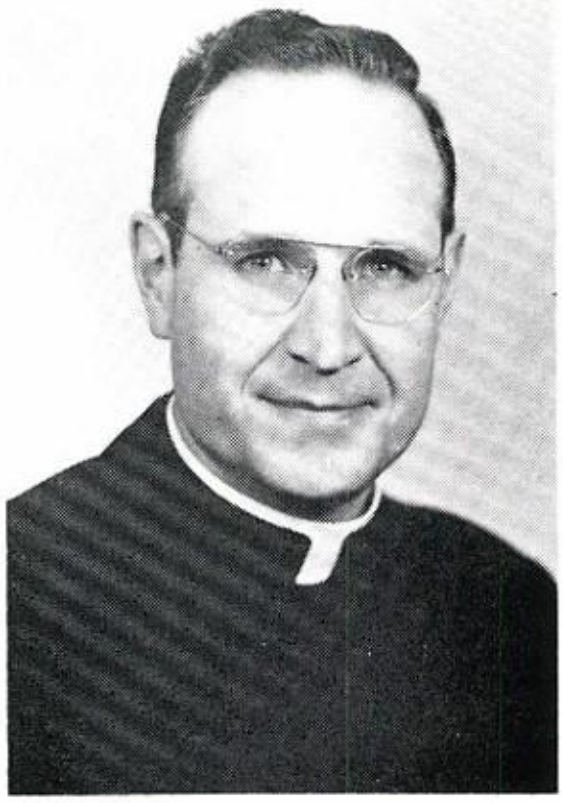
REV. EDWARD C. DUNN, M.A., S.T.L.

Father Dunn, our newly appointed principal, has been more than a principal to the students of Calvert. A time comes in every student's life when he has troubles that he would like to discuss with someone. In Father's very busy schedule, he has time for the smallest problem.

As the boys and girls see Father going about his work with cheerfulness and industry, he is an example for all to work a little harder. Studies, learning lines for a play or operetta do not seem quite so hard, when Father gives an encouraging word or smile. In fact, so capably and earnestly does Father fulfill his duties that he seems to be a born leader.

He is also well known for his fine ideas and assistance in planning parties or proms. We never had to worry about a problem, whether it concerned getting boys to dance or buying decorations, for Father always suggested some fine idea.

We very proudly say, "Father Dunn is our principal," and we might add, we think he is one of the best. Father brought much fun and laughter into the lives of the seniors, but he also taught us how to live true Christian lives. Thank you, Father, for your many good deeds; we really appreciate your help in making us better Christians.



REV. BENEDICT E. RINGHOLZ, B.A.

Assistant Principal

"Your first assignment is your first love and you continue to like your first love." Father Ringholz thus expressed his satisfaction in returning to Tiffin after eight years' absence.

He is now Calvert's assistant principal. His junior and freshman Religion classes keep him busy, but he is never too occupied to be a friend to everyone. Gum chewing, his pet peeve, has been greatly reduced since he has taken his position.

All students wish Father Ringholz many happy years at Calvert.

Board of Fiscal Control

We wish to thank the Right Reverend Monsignor R. I. Kinnane and Monsignor Richard J. Gabel for all the spiritual guidance and the assistance they have given us throughout our grade school and high school days.

They have furnished us with very fine grade schools and excellent teachers. All of these were provided so we could obtain a Catholic education, for which we will always be grateful.

Calvert would not be what it is today if it were not for Msgr. Kinnane and Msgr. Gabel's initiative and efforts. They carried on a very successful campaign for the New Building Fund.

Now the New Building is a credit to both parishes. Its graceful lines prove to be useful as well as beautiful. There are the chemistry and physics labs, adequately equipped. Future homemakers find a large home economics department, complete with sewing and cooking utilities. Echoes can be heard at almost any time coming from the large recreation room, in which the dances, parties, and the proms are held.

Again we wish to thank Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel for their ever-watchful spiritual and temporal help.

Ping-Pong, Anyone?

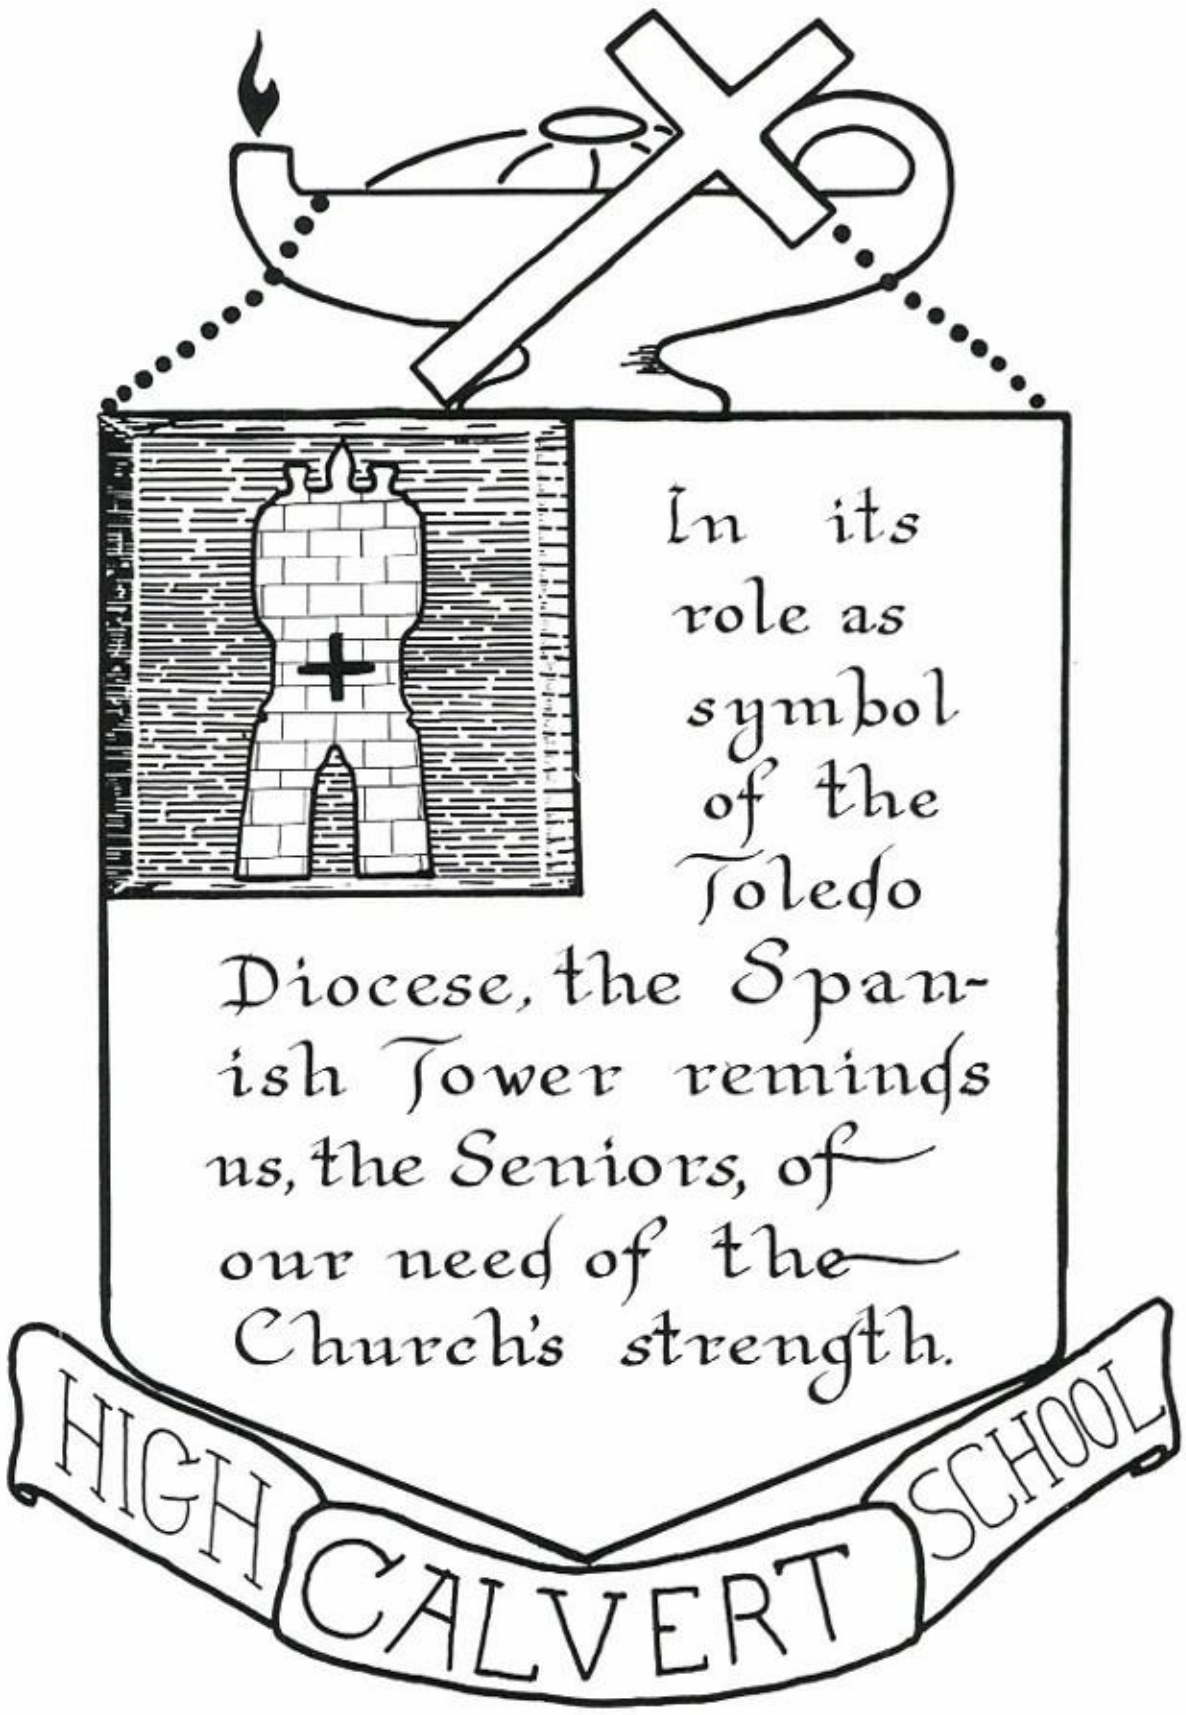
Enjoying a game of ping-pong in the Recreation room are Eugene Steinmetz, Edward Steinmetz, Herbert McClellan, Edward Streacker, Richard Phillips, and Larry Zimmer.

Christ is Born

The Nativity scene of the Christmas pageant pictures Joan Eschenbrenner and Roger Brubaker as Mary and Joseph.

Dollmakers

Preparing octopus dolls for the Lady Boosters' booth for the Calvert festival under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Mitten is a group of senior girls.



In its role as symbol of the Toledo Diocese, the Spanish Tower reminds us, the Seniors, of our need of the Church's strength.

May Crowning, The Highlight Event

This year Donna Mooney and Michael Flynn represented the school at the crowning of our Blessed Lady's statue. Joan Eschenbrenner and Paul Dunn carried the banners. This annual event is the acknowledgement of our deep love and devotion for Our Lady, the Mother of God.

The qualifications for the Religion honor roll are: the student must have maintained a B+ average in Religion and character rating for seven semesters. The honored students are chosen by the members of the junior and senior classes.

Those on the Religion honor roll are listed below.

Donald Blust
Ruth Breidenbach
Gary Croy
James Dryfuse
Daniel Fullerton
Kathleen Gase
Charles Gillig
Henrietta Grillot
Lois Herbert
Thomas Huss
Ann Klopp
Eugene Koby
Barbara Leahy
Hermina Leahy

Scholastic Honor Roll

Those achieving a 90 per cent or better average throughout the four years of high school are:

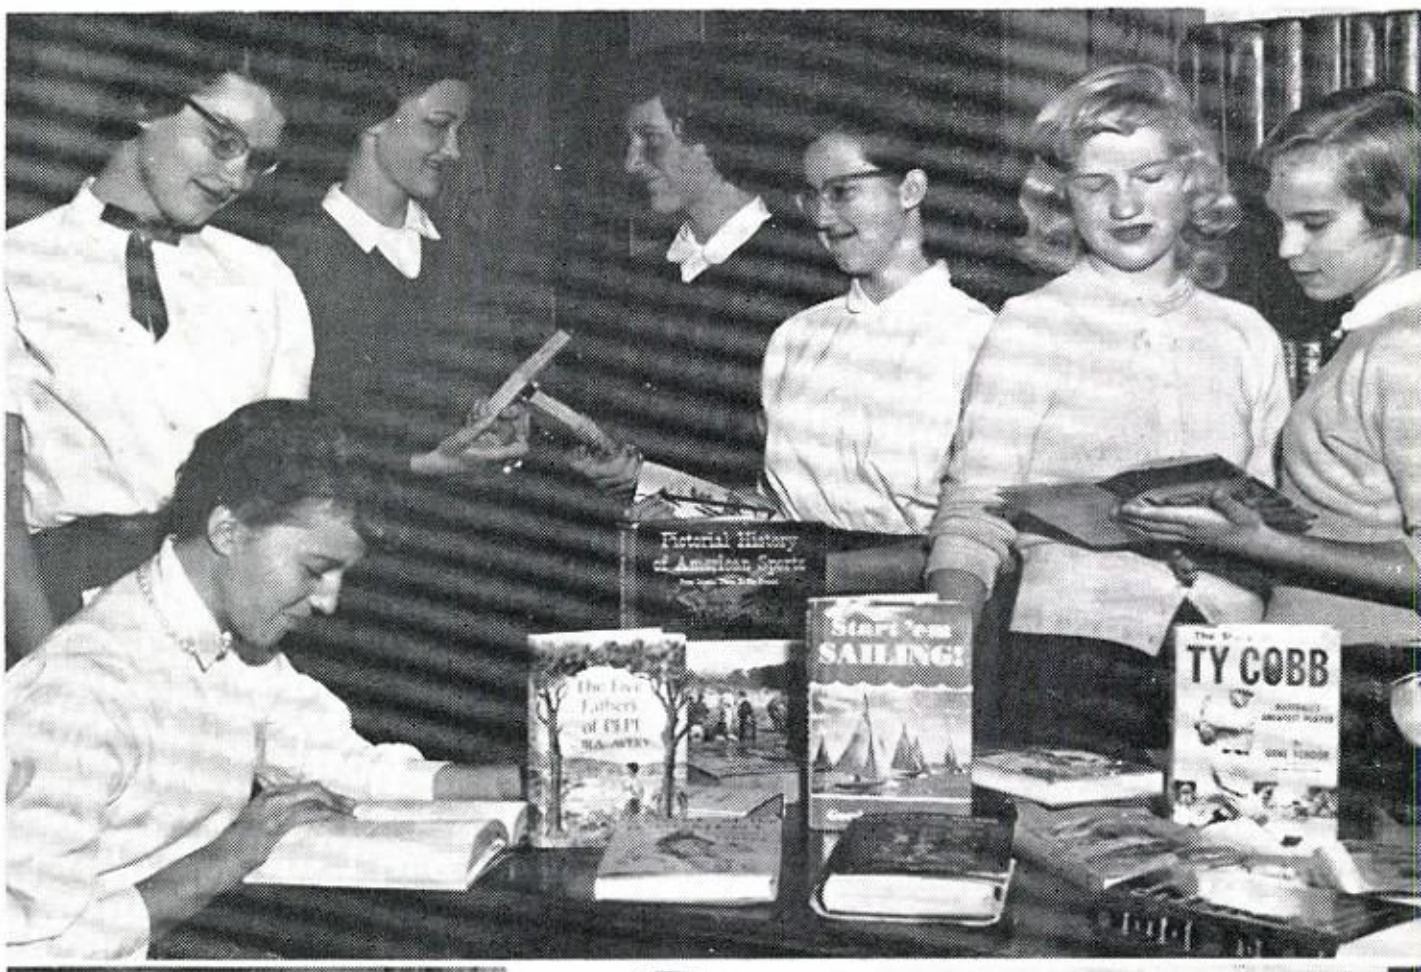
Paul Dunn
Kathleen Gase
Michael Flynn
Nancy Vogel
Eugene Koby
Jeannette Lutz
Hermina Leahy
Donna Mooney
Carol Staib
Lois Herbert
Shirley Rogala
Mary Brady
Henrietta Grillot

Student Council Officers

Guiding the students, the officers of the student Council: Shirley Rogala, vice-president; Elinor Franzen, secretary, Michael Flynn, president; and Louis Wise, treasurer, have taken the responsibility for many of the activities; such as, the Homecoming, Tax Stamp drives, and Color Day.

Library Heart of School

Calvert's "best sellers" seem to impress these first year high girls: Judy Eckert, Carole Kerkoff, Judy Daniel, Joyce Gilliland, Judith Mathias, Norma Rogier, and Sue Reimer.



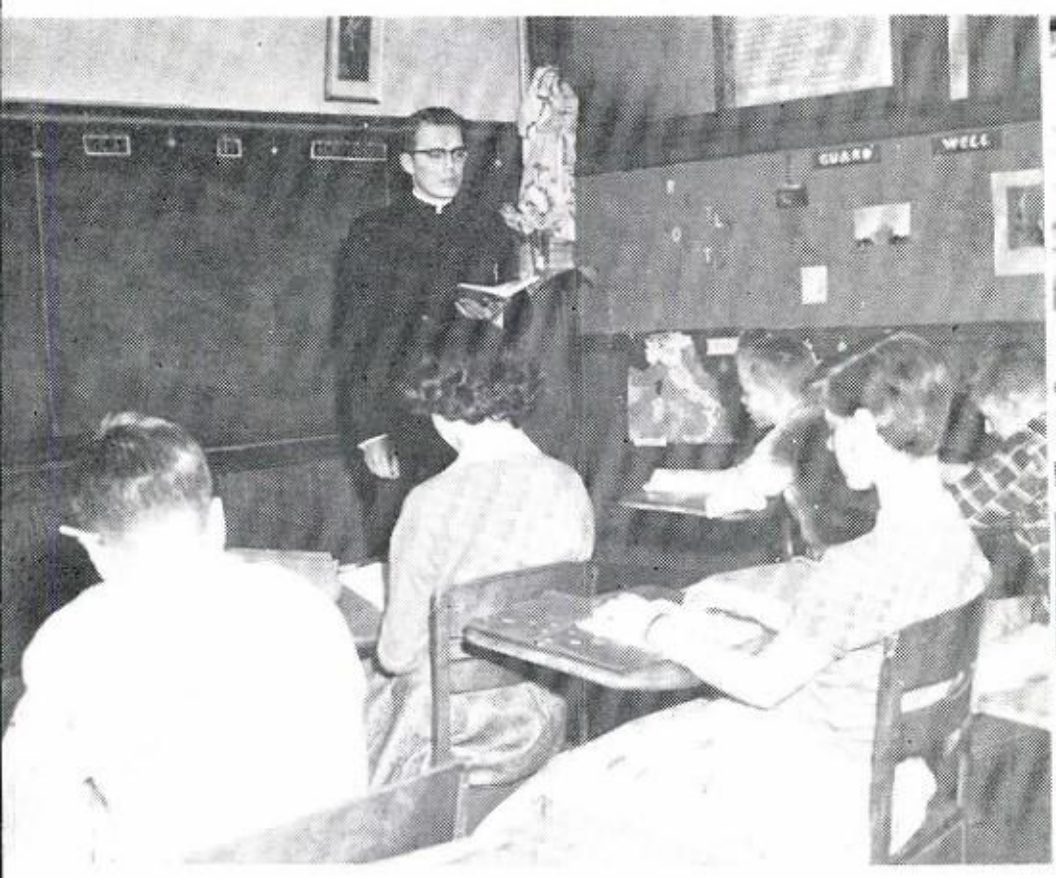
Delving into an unabridged dictionary seems to settle a literary argument among these freshmen boys: Richard Burns, Timothy Nitecki, David Pahl, Richard Schreiner, and Thomas Funkhouser.

Religion

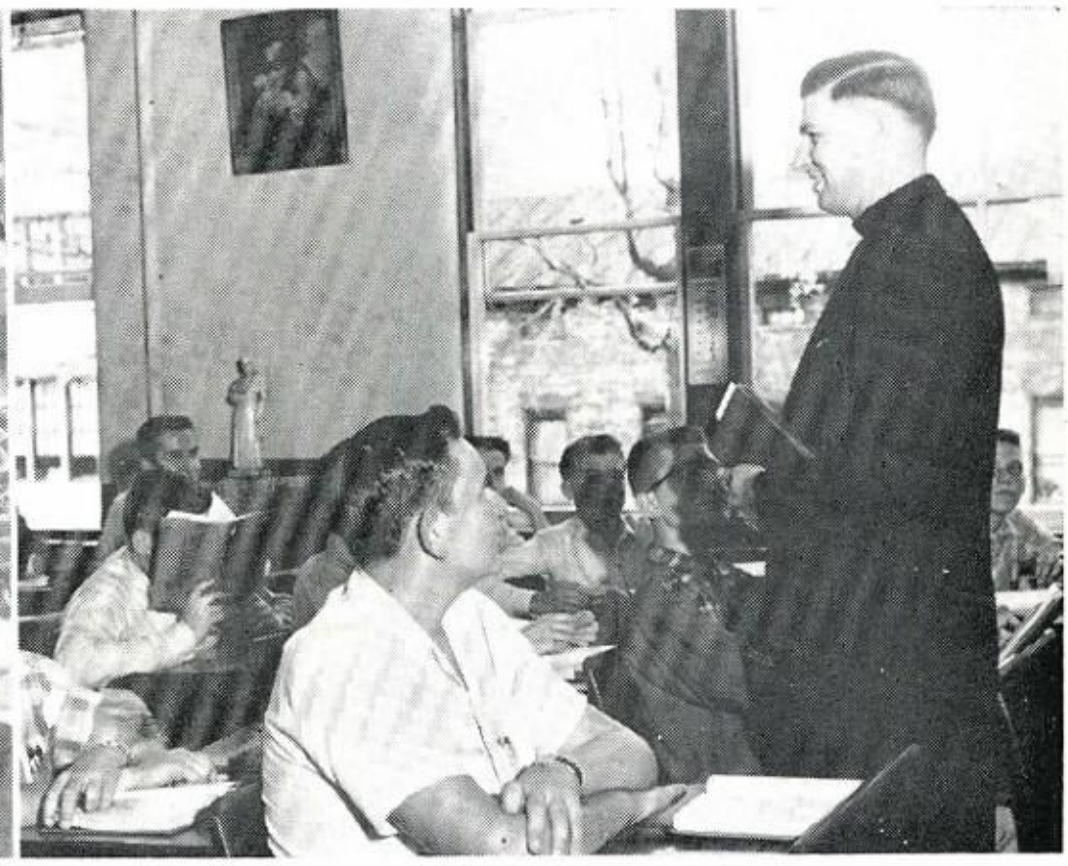
Father Dunn, principal, is instructing the senior girls in their role as Catholics.

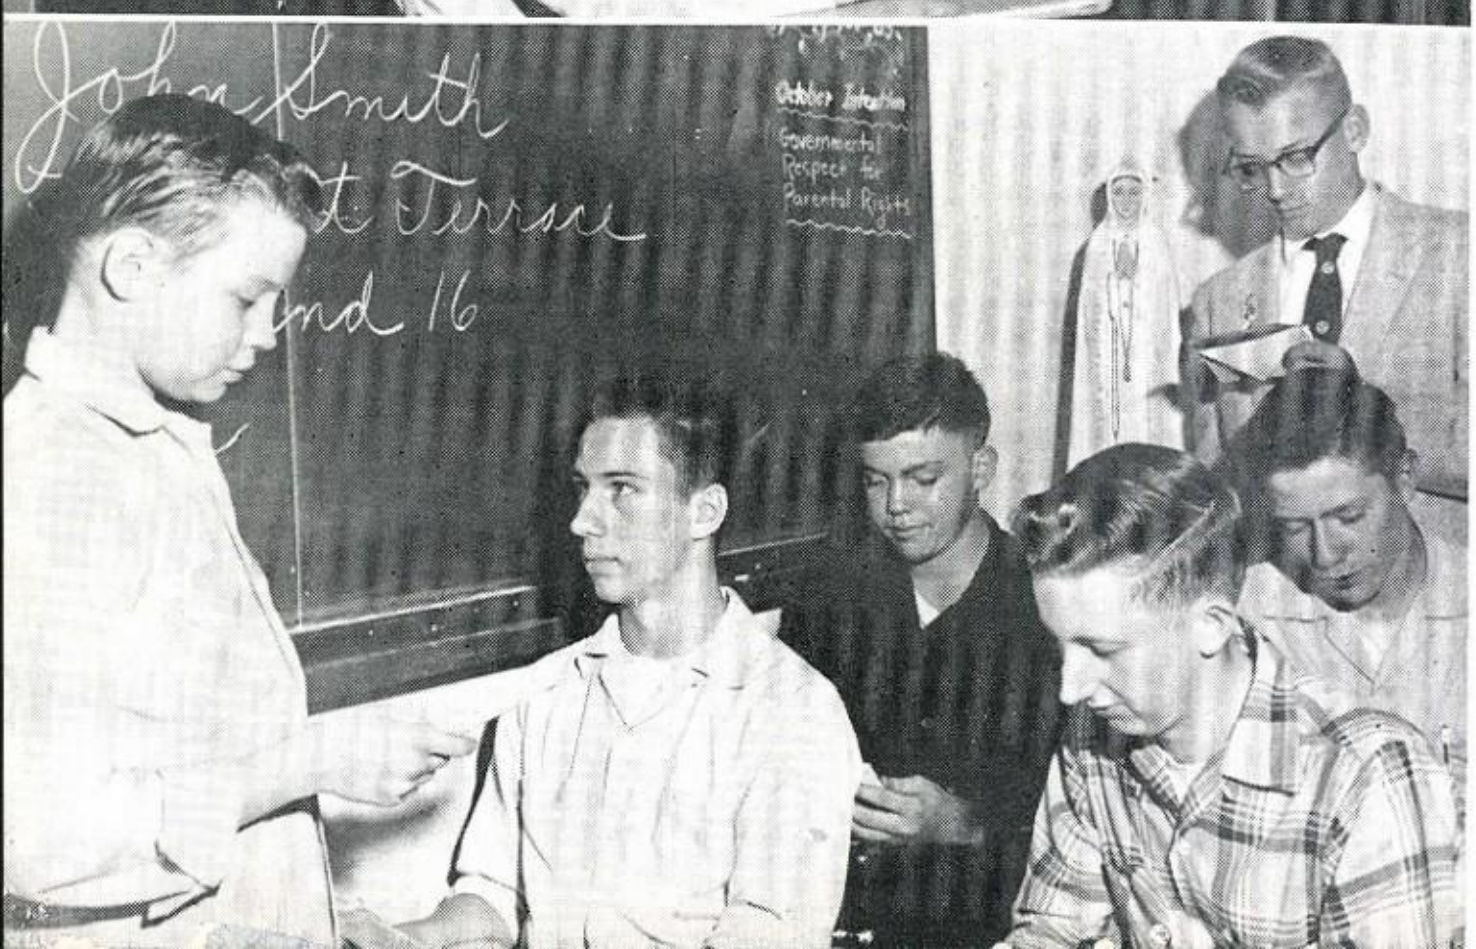
Learning the word of God from Father Ringholz are the junior boys.

Under the capable guidance of Father Reichert, the freshman class tackle the most important study, Religion.



With Father Walsh as their instructor, learning religion is a joy for these sophomores.





English

Four Short Stories

Jean Gilliland admires the star bequeathed to the Russian peasants by "The Stranger in the Village;" Clarann Haefling portrays "The Ingenue of the Sierras;" Marjorie Zoeller holds "The Third Ingredient:" and Ancilla Fisher rewards Nox's good work in "The Oracle of the Dog."

Junior Playwrights?

Nancy Mathias, Carole Gilgannon, and Regina Ferstler are reading their original plays, while James Unser operates the tape-recorder.

Freshman Letterwriters

Eagerly preparing themselves for future correspondence, these freshman English students—David Kuntz, Thomas Schultz, Ralph Nominee, Paul Sheeley, Kenneth Seifert, and John Kasza—compare their addressed envelopes with the address which has been written on the board.

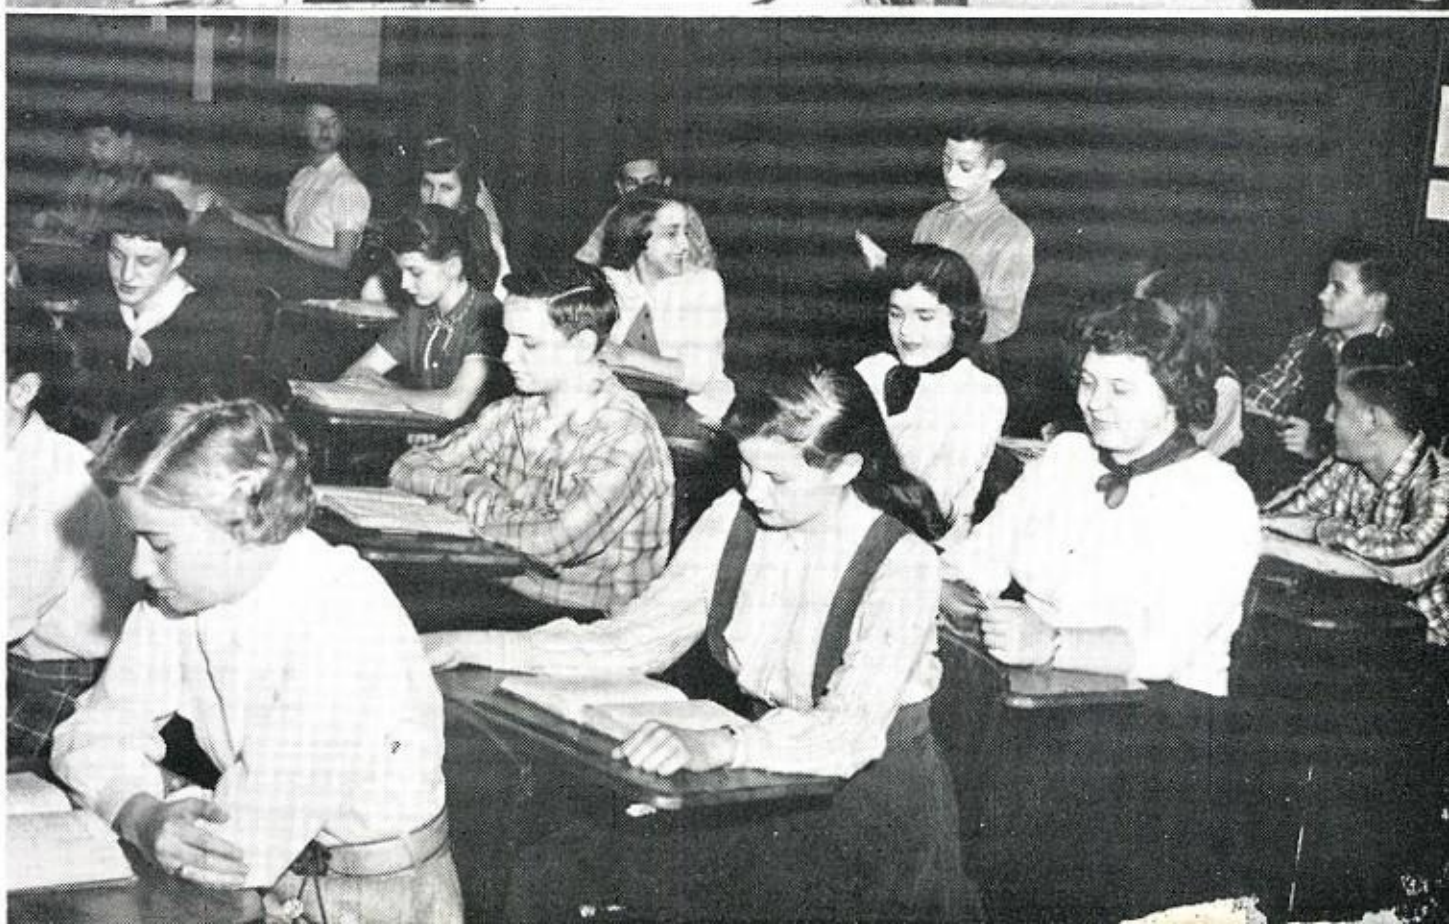
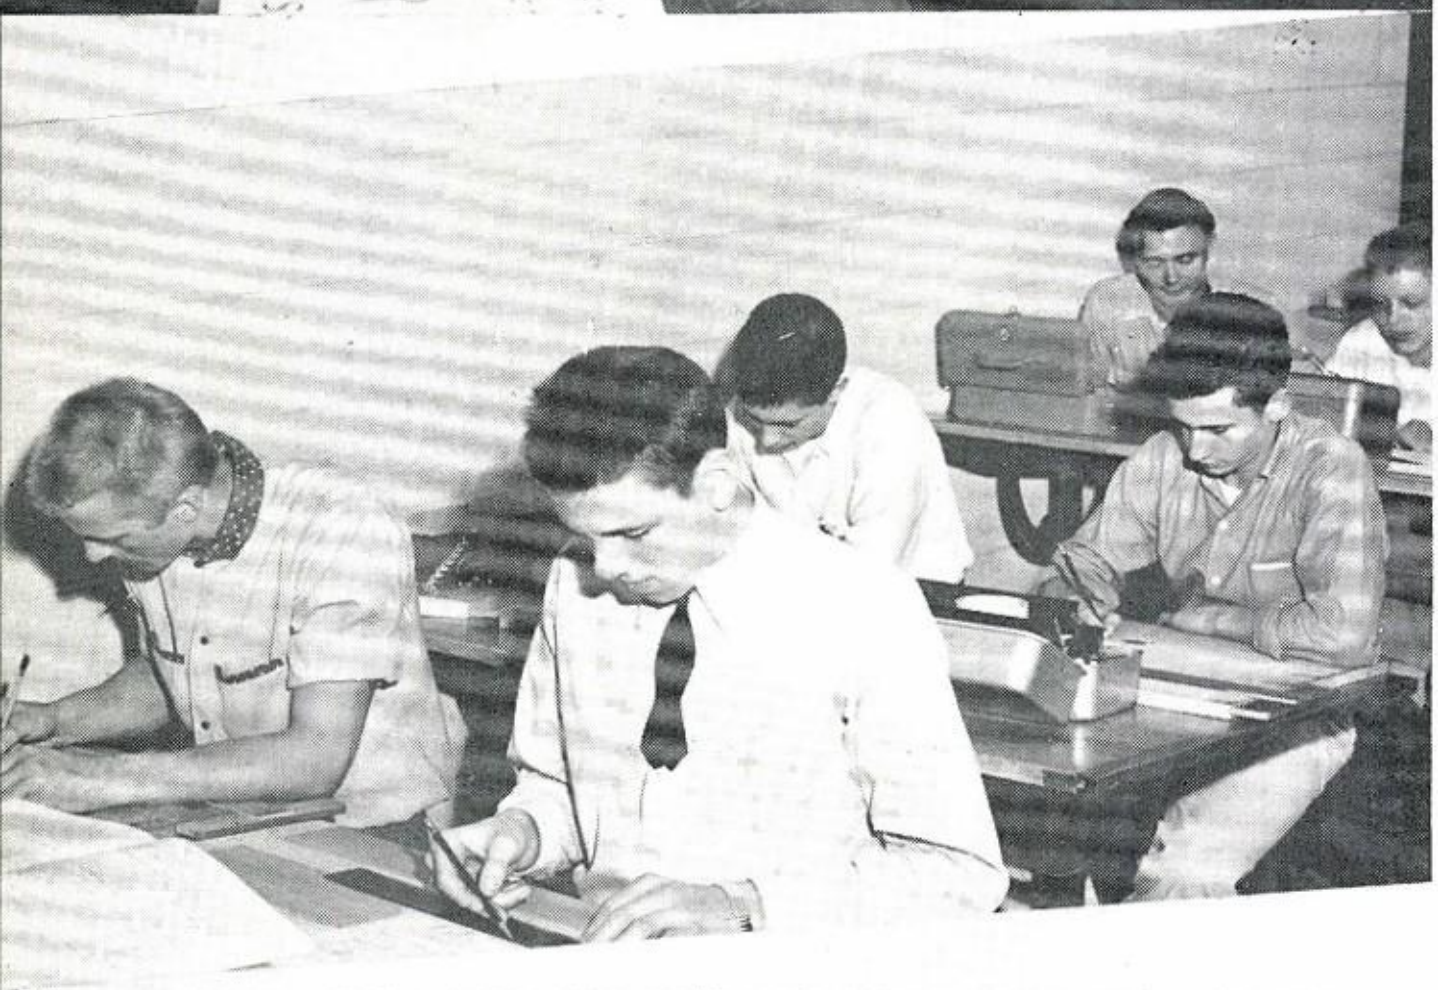
Latin II concentrates upon the Helvetians' tribulations with one Gaius Julius Caesar.

Robert Flechtner interests his class with an original and unusual translation of a story in Latin I.



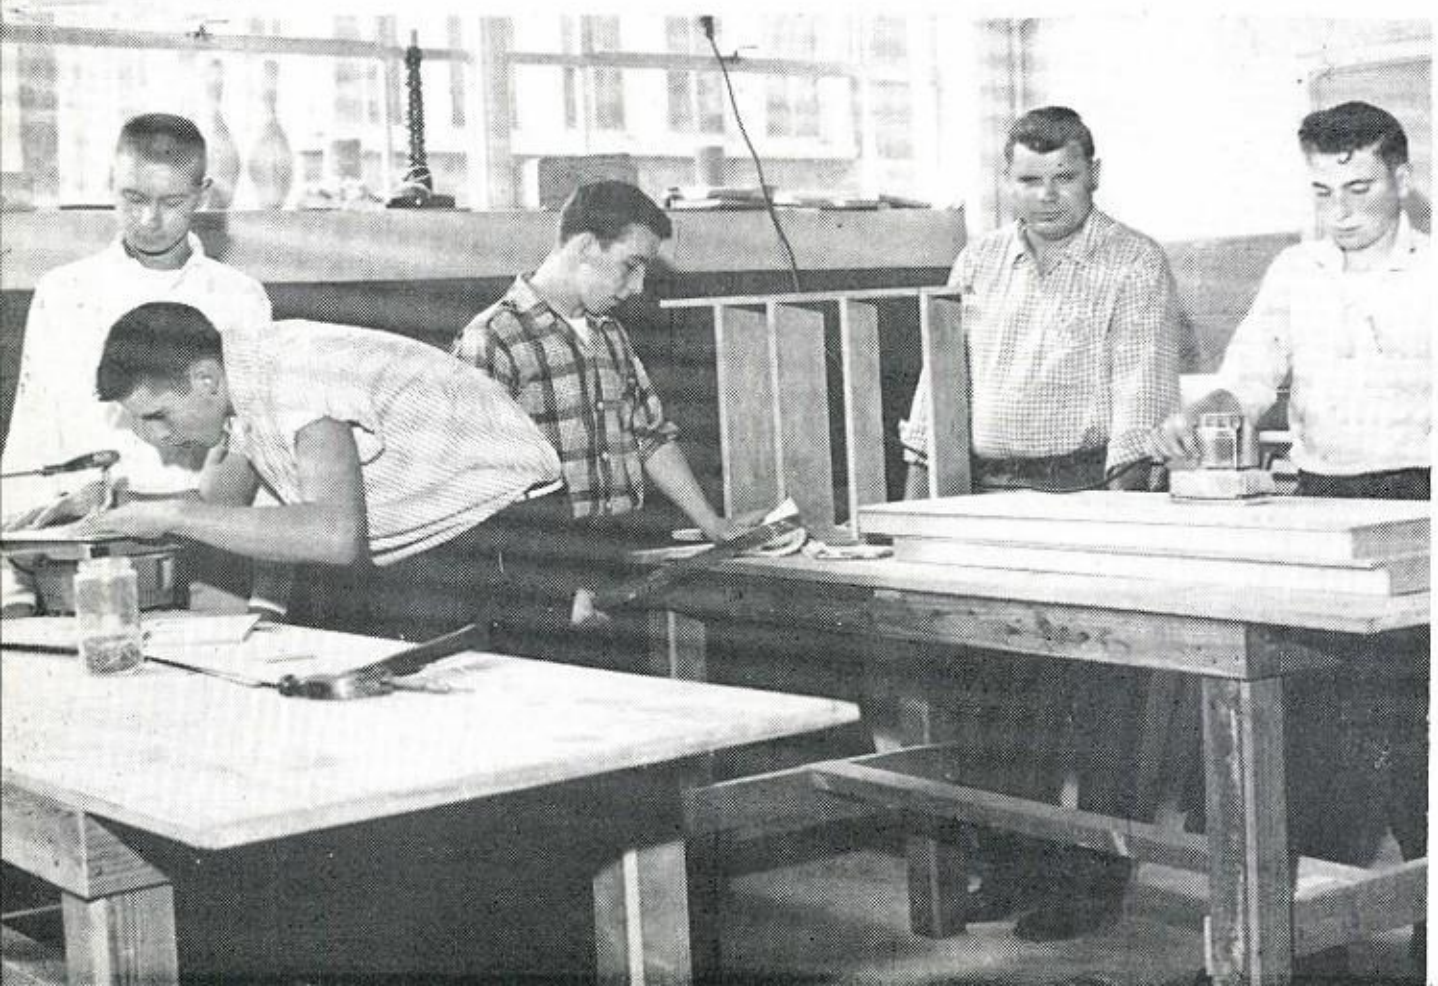
Hopeful Artists

Last October the art class were making posters. Since that time they have aided the school's many activities. Pictured here are: George Houck, Thomas Huss, Agnes Welter, Jean Johnston, Daniel Colatruglio, Roger Brubaker, Thomas Rodgers, Ronald Rochester, Marion Smith, Gerald Bentz, and James Kirian.



Draftsmen in Making

Daniel Moran, Edward Streacker, Robert Bish, Russell Magers, Carol Burns, and William Theis are the potential draftsmen.



Future Carpenters

Under the guidance of Mr. Zalar, Gerald Smyser, John Sauber, Kenneth Rumschlag, and Charles Bish are learning to live in the industrial age.

Commerce

Profit or Loss?

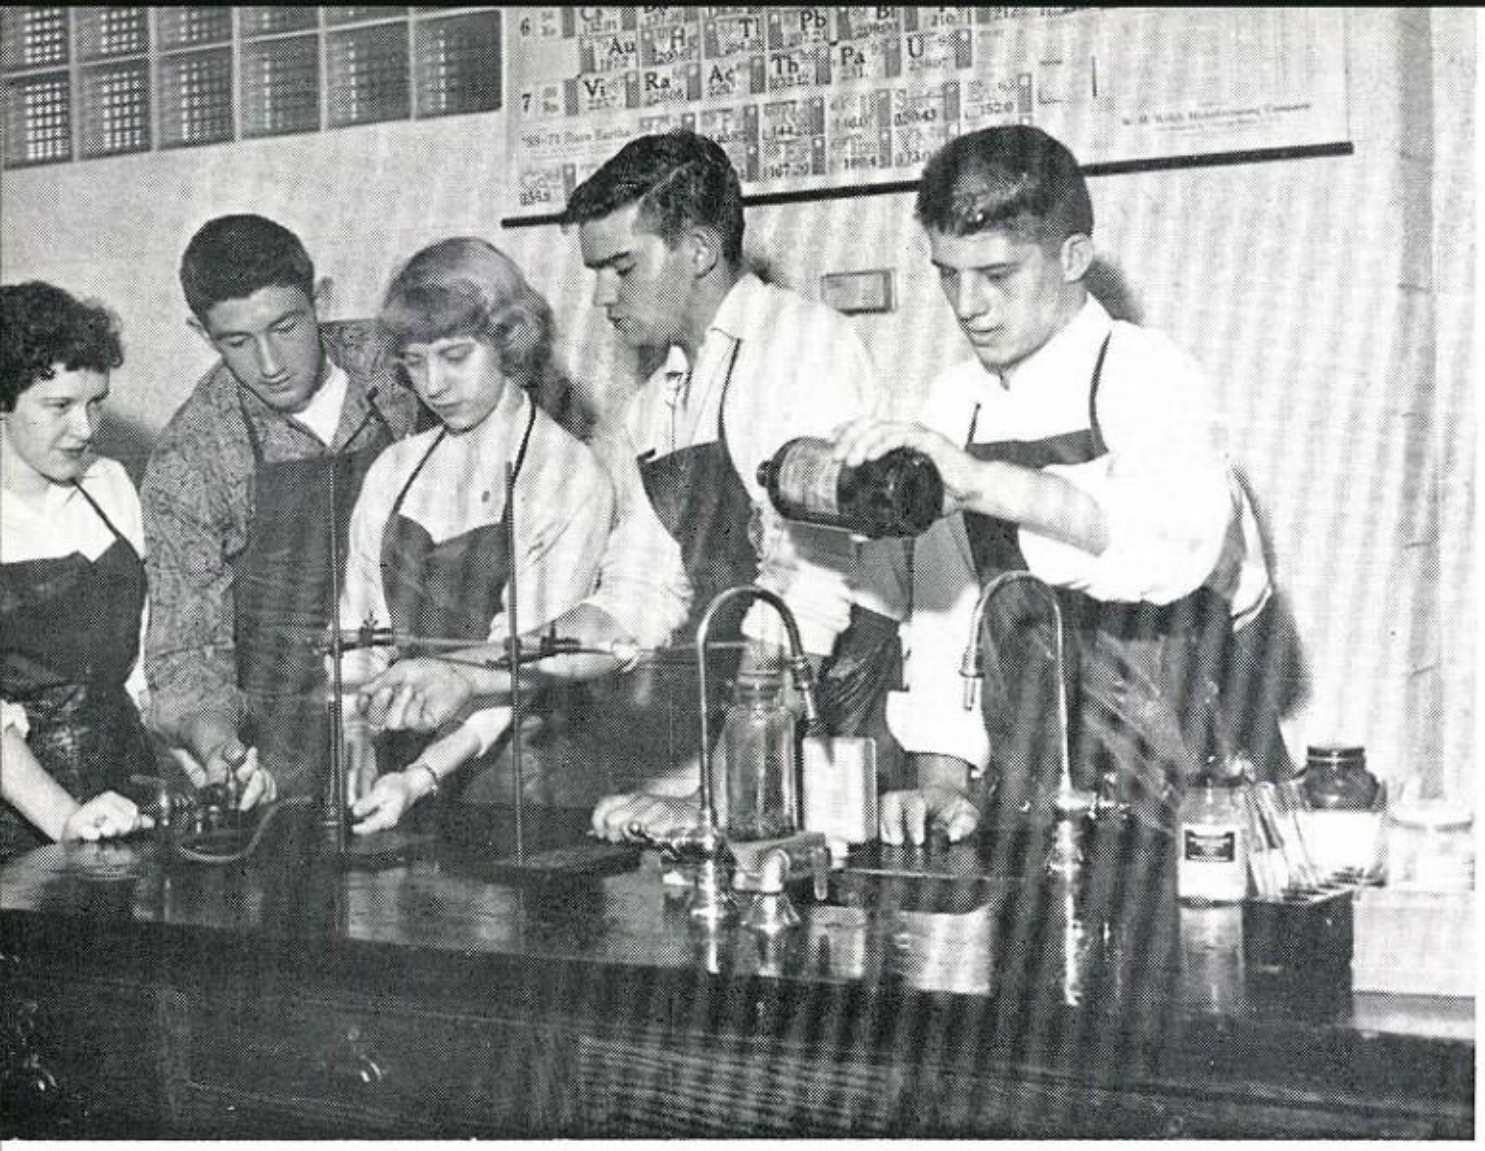
Rita Hayward, Mary Esselman, and Richard Romig make out the profit and loss statement in bookkeeping class.

Speed and Accuracy Their Goal

Transcribing shorthand are Joan Eschenbrenner, Rita Seifert, Sue Unterbrink, and Margaret Kirian.

Up Goes the Temperature

Michael McCrory marks up his speed as Tim O'Connell, Mary Kay Boner, and Alicia Huffman practice for perfection.

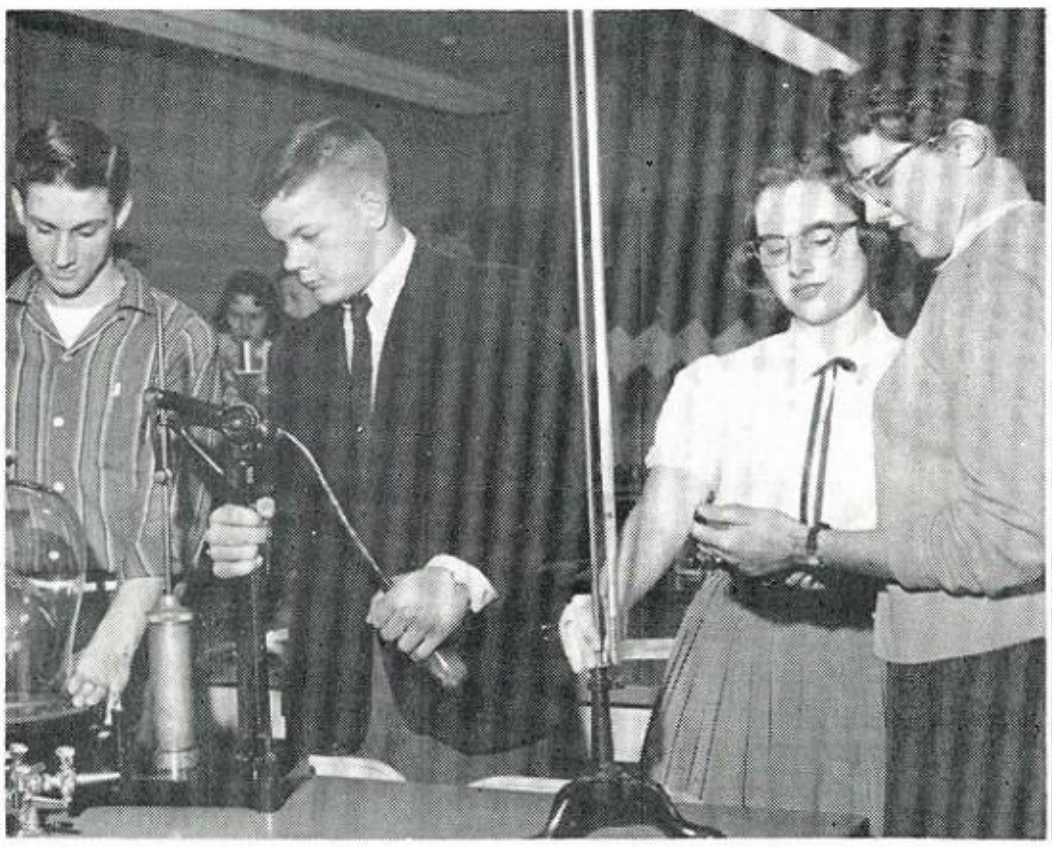


Future Chemists

Judging by the serious expressions on the faces of Jean Ranker, Robert Mitten, Henrietta Grillot, Richard Dandurand, and David Riedy, this experiment on the reduction of copper oxide by hydrogen should be a success.

Physicists of Tomorrow

Nicholas Williard and Tom Welter study the effect of a partial vacuum, while Martha Immele and Linda Smith demonstrate Boyle's Law.

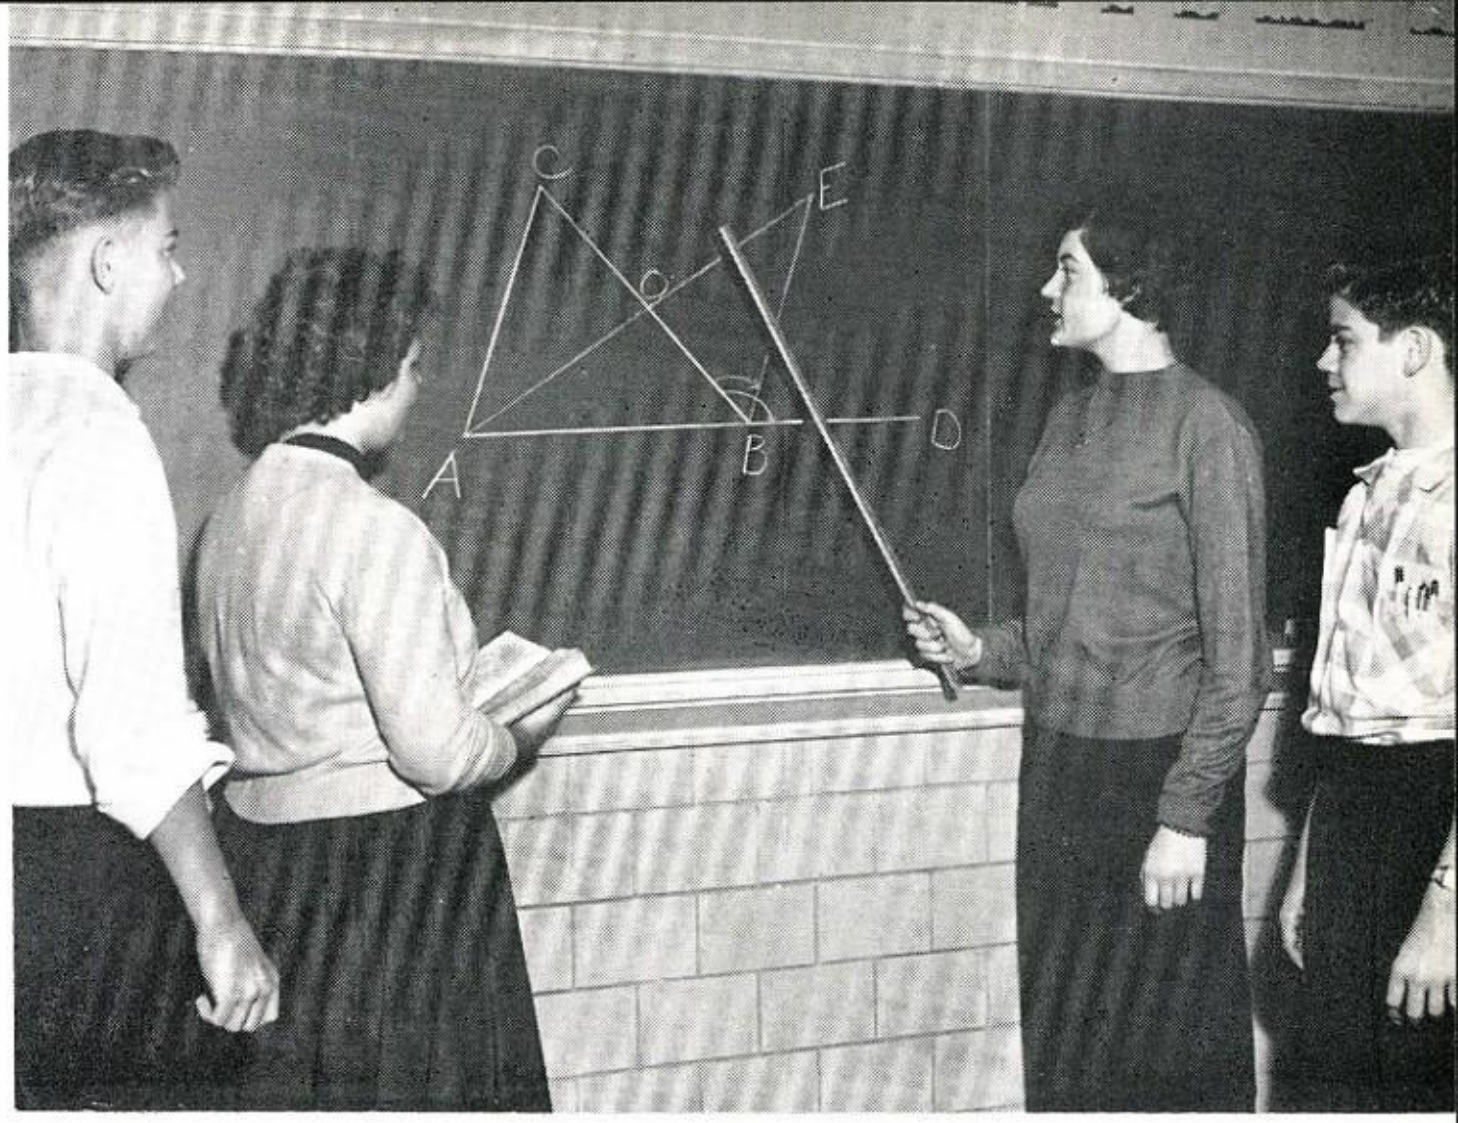


Busy Biologists

Five sophomores, Ancilla Fisher, Margaret Kastner, Joyce Steinmetz, Jane Mattes, and Phyllis Borer, exhibit the results of their hard work in collecting specimens and other biology projects.

Angle CBD Greater Than Angle C

David Steinmetz, Marjorie Lucius, Betty Lucas, and Thomas Dell are proving that an exterior angle of a triangle exceeds its non-adjacent interior angle. They are using the fundamental axioms, the congruence of triangles, and auxiliary lines.

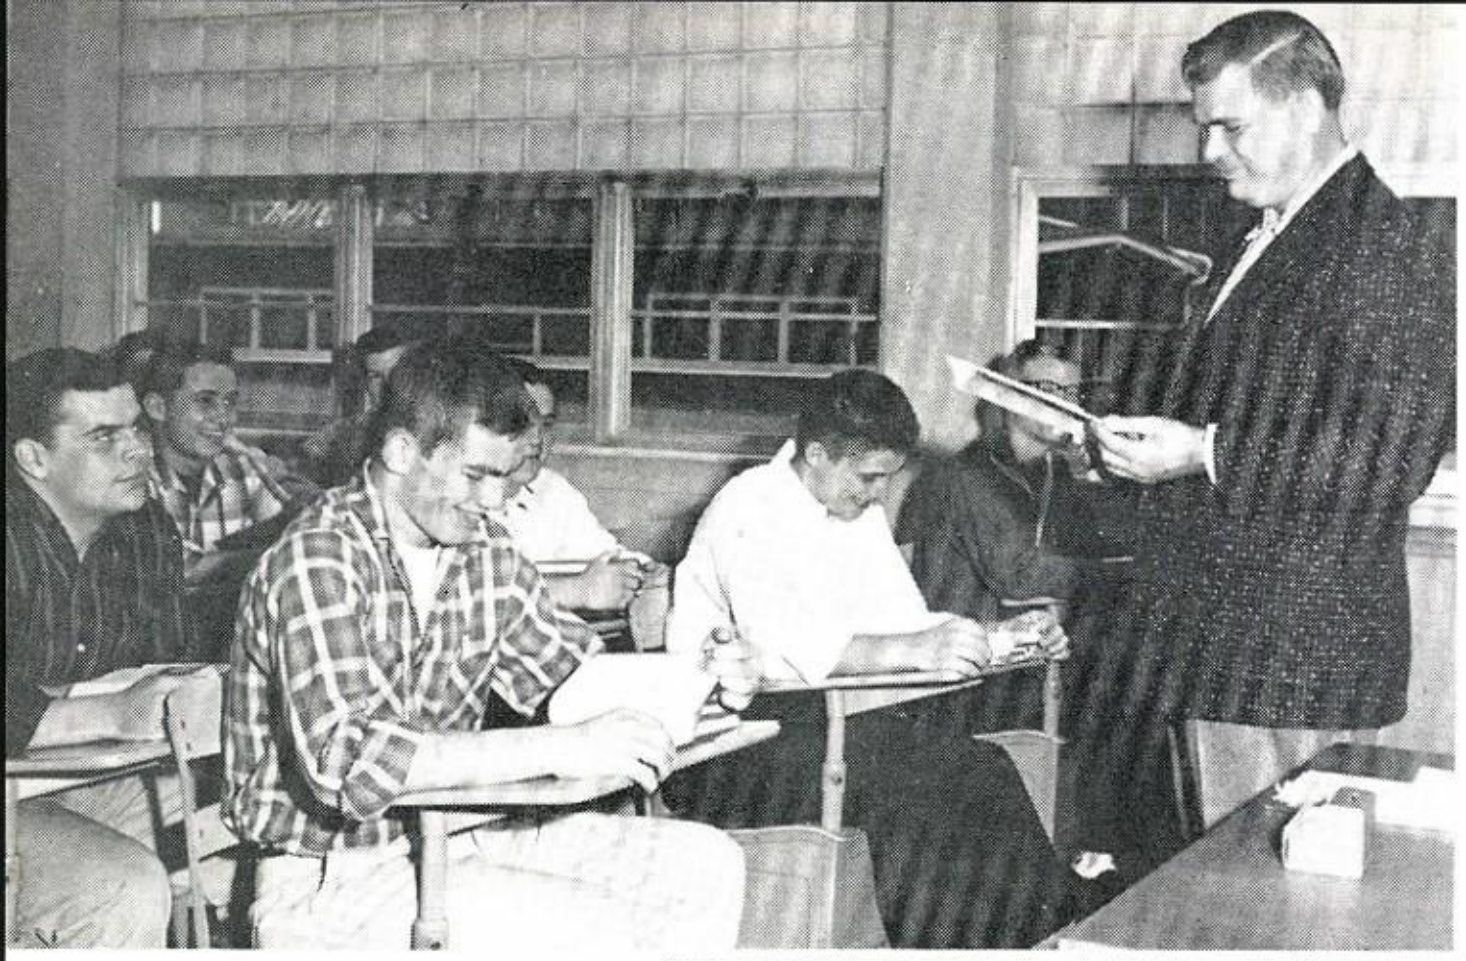


Engineering, Anyone?

In his fourth year Math class, Mr. Diringer is explaining a dihedral angle to Edward Steinmetz, Michael Flynn, Eugene Steinmetz, James Dryfuse and Dave Reidy.

Science in Everyday Living

Mr. Kukoy is teaching these students the essentials of General Science. Pictured here are: William Stein, Martha Bridinger, Phyllis Pacifico, Sharon Zalar and Robert Jentgen.



History

We, the People

Mr. Zalar explains the fundamentals of good government to Michael McClellan, Daniel Fullerton, William Crist, John Leahy, David Riedy and Jack Houck.

Declaration of Independence

Thomas Welter, Richard Kuhn, Ronald Kirian, Elizabeth Oddou, Angela Grillot, and Jane Blust witness the signing of the name "John Hancock" to the Declaration of Independence. James Snyder represents John Hancock.

Around the World

Not quite, but almost; that is the known world of ancient times. The group, consisting of Jack Seemuth, Lawrence Shook, Kenneth Martin, David Leahy and Susan Reimer, are following the Roman expansion eastward.

Future Homemakers

Judy Miller, Judy Bender, Barbara Gillig, Kathryn Clouse, Kathleen Kraft, and Diane Panning are learning to set a table properly in their Home Economics class. Pretty, isn't it?

Barbara Kastner, Dolores Gaietto, and Marilyn Hohman examine an apron made by Pat Patterson as Carmie Perna views Janet Bish's wrinkle-free efforts at the mangle.

Ann Bish and Loretta Turco accomplish the necessary evil of dishwashing, as Audrey Depinet checks the finished product, a cake.

Calvert News

Outstanding Journalists

Surveying the finished product are the co-editors of the Calvert News, Larry Zimmer and Nancy Vogel, and the associate editors: Ruth Breidenbach, Mary Lou Brady, Kathleen Gase, Margaret Miller, Daniel Colatruglio, Bernadette Fleck, Betty Seifert, and Rita Hayward.

A Nose for News

Look for Unusual

Tapping away at the keys and preparing the second page are the feature writers and typists: Carol Fisher, Shirley Rogala, Lois Herbert, Jean Company, Sue Unterbrink, Margaret Kirian, Mary Ann Pacifico, Joan Eschenbrenner, Hermina Leahy, Carolyn Schleter, Barbara Leahy, Carol Kuhn, Rita Werling, and Agnes Welter.

Getting It Out

Those entrusted with the duty of getting the paper out on time are: sitting—Elizabeth Hoover, Geraldine Schetter, Mary Omlor, Jean Ranker, Rita Seifert; standing—Bernice Terry, John Houck, Charles Gillig, James Reinhart, Herbert McClellan, Richard Dandurand, and Ruth Scholl.

Art and Publicity

Those responsible for art and patrons are: Fred Hohman, David Distel, Jeanene Johnston, Michael Perna, Salvatore Faradiso, Louis Dunn, Roger Brubaker, Paul Gatton, John Gatton, Richard Sendelbach, George Houck, John Leahy, Gerald Hoerig, and Kenneth Rumschlag.

On the Scene

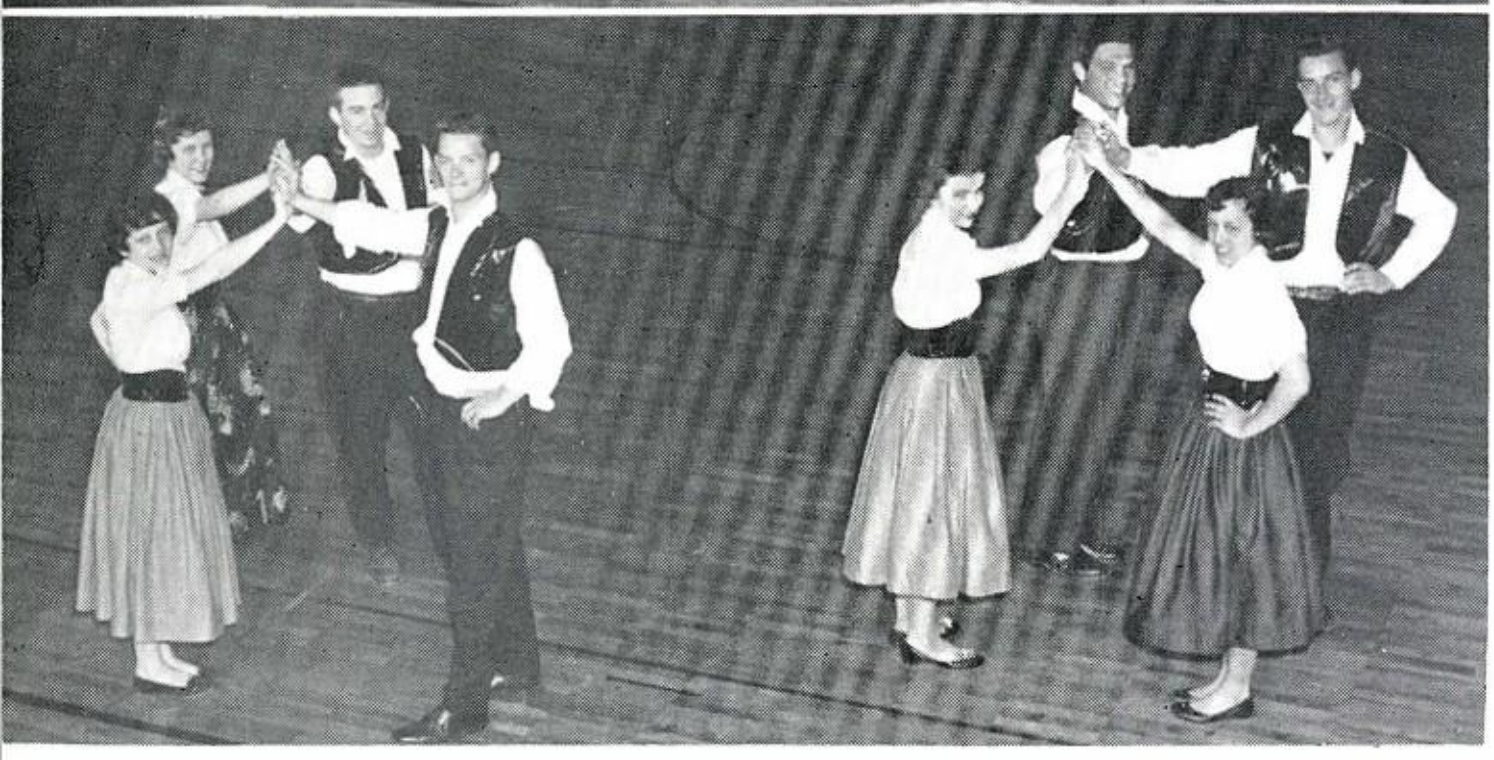
The on-the-spot reporters and photographers are: Gary Croy, Michael Brickner, James Dryfuse, Edward Streacker, Daniel Fullerton, Michael Flynn, Paul Dunn, Larry Shelt, Robert Mitten, Eugene Steinmetz, Michael McClellan, Michael Leahy, Thomas Huss, Richard Bernard, and Marion Smith.

Scenes from 'Masquerade in Vienna'

"You're to blame! It's a shame!" sings Rosalind, Shirley Rogala; Mr. Stein, James McNulty; and Mr. Blind, Gerard Welter, as they point accusing fingers at one another.

"Gentlemen, what does this mean?" scowls Rosalind when she finds Mr. Stein and Doctor Falke making merry over the prospect of Stein's going to jail.

The members of the Royal Ballet—Barbara Leahy, Margaret Kirian, Henrietta Grillot, Mary Esselman, Carolyn Schleter, Geraldine Schetter, Margaret Miller, Ruth Breidenbach, and Agnes Welter—perform to a medley of Strauss waltzes at the banquet given by Prince Orlofsky.



A group of peasants and serving folk, making merry on their way to market, do the polka. Dancers are Dolores Gaietto, Elizabeth Renninger, Thomas Van Curen, Roger Brubaker, Judith Traunero, George Houck, Anthony Schetter, and Carmella Perna.

"May I have this polka with you, my sweet?" Joseph Hunter asks Anne Wade while the peasants—Richard Phillips, Carol Kuhn, Rebecca Jentgen, John Houck, Betty Seifert, Michael Flynn, Elinor Franzen, Paul Dunn, Carol Staib, Tim O'Connell, Ann Klopp, Ronald Kirian, Angela Grillot, and David Seislove—look on.

Singing "Czardas", a song of Hungary, are Carol Kuhn, Mary Omlor, Rebecca Jentgen, Ann Klopp, Mary Ann Pacifico, Martha Carpenter, and Carol Maloy.

"Do have some cake" insists Prince Orlofsky, Daniel Fullerton. The butler, Gary Croy, brings in more cake to the amusement of Doctor Falke.

Adele serves the boar's head, while two other servants in Gabriel Von Stein's home help to arrange the table for the evening meal.

'Brothers Dear'

Daniel Colatruglio sings "Brothers Dear and Sisters Dear." Carol Maloy, Anne Wade, Daniel Fullerton, Shirley Rogala, and James McNulty listen attentively.

'Shirt Sleeves'

Don, Thomas Huss, controls the temper of Crandall, Michael Flynn, while Margie, Mary Lou Brady, discloses a scandal. Franklin, Daniel Fullerton, and his wife, Julia, Nancy Vogel, watch their son Don's valiant defense with great amazement.

"Do I hear another bid?" says the auctioneer, Michael Leahy, as Edward Streacker, John Gatton, Eldon Kimmet, Rita Hayward, and Eugene Koby consider the do's and don'ts of buying.

Esther, Jean Ranker, and Theodore, Eugene Steinmetz, glow with excitement, as Omega, Mary Omlor, and Alpha, Carol Kuhn, emphasize the finer points of a masterpiece.

"The heck with the dough!" exclaimed Kitty, Lois Herbert, as Diana, Henrietta Grillot, show her a special delivery letter from Elmer, Eldon Kimmet.

EDWARD STREACKER

Co-Editors

Enterprise, reliability, and perseverance characterized the work of the co-editors of the 1957 Calvertana—Lois Herbert and Edward Streacker.

The 1957 Calvertana

Bound within the covers of this book lie the memories, disappointments, and triumphs that rest in the hearts of Calvert students.

Fifty years from now, the young, as well as the old, will anxiously enjoy the activities which this collection of pictures reveal.

Even though the task seemed to be a mighty one, the seniors showed enthusiasm throughout the planning, writing, and patron drive. We seniors are proud to present this volume, packed with treasures of unforgettable memories.

Patron Winners

For the first time, the Calvert News and Calvertana patron drives were combined into one, held during the month of September.

This made the goal high, but every senior appreciated the fact that he had to get patrons only once. The seniors met the goal through the many efforts of the winners of the drive - Edward Streacker, Eugene Steinmetz, Betty Seifert, Gary Croy, John Houck, Richard Phillips, Paul Dunn, and Henrietta Grillot.

Shouting 'Go!, Team, Go!'

With high stepping feet and whirling baton, Carol Fisher, senior and head majorette, ably assisted by Barbara Kazsa, sophomore, and Margaret Mueller, junior, has completed a season of putting Calvert High's marching aggregation through their intricate maneuvers.

Smilingly showing the form and poise the cheerleaders so admirably displayed throughout the past seasons, seniors—Jeannette Lutz, Bernadette Fleck and Ruth Breidenbach—bid good-bye and good luck to their junior cheerleading partners—Phyllis Rumschlag, Ann Myers, and Rebecca Jentgen.

Calvert's

Adding the high notes are the clarinets—Irene Welty, Rebecca Spencer, Barbara Leahy, Regina Polski, Daniel Ring, Carolyn Sorg, Judith Traunero, Carol Staib, Carol Maloy, Marjorie Wittaker, Gary Croy, Mary Ann Bell, and Barbara Sass.

The flutes take the high road and the basses take the low road as Calvert's Band goes marching by. The students playing these instruments are Thomas Welter, Judith Warnement, Sharon Mitten, and Elmo Smith.

Julia Schetter, Geraldine Schetter, Lois Herbert, Ruth Rumschlag, Emily Dolch, and Mary Jane Blust compose the countermelody section.

Marching Band

Contributing their time and ability are the saxes and horns—Agnes Welter, Betty Seifert, Charles Reinhart, Martha Carpenter, Carolyn Sorg, Geraldine Welter, and Janet Welter.

Helping to keep the band in step are Phyllis Pacifico, Ann Klopp, Lawrence Barrick, Mary Ann Pacifico, Margaret Miller, Rita Werling, Eileen Dow, Helen Hess, and Patricia Leahy.

MR. KARL ZALAR

MR. JOSEPH KUKOY

Builders of Men

In Mr. Zalar's eight years as head coach of Calvert's athletic program, he has established a record of which he can well be proud. I am sure that we have all, at one time or another, heard the expressions "builder of men", or "sculptor of freedom". With careful insight into the meanings of either of these sayings, we can place Mr. "Zip" Zalar in either class.

First of all, we consider that Mr. Zalar is making the men of tomorrow, in that on the football field and the basketball hardcourt he is teaching the values of sportsmanship and fair play. It takes a real man to be honorable in defeat and humble in victory. Mr. Zalar has always striven to point out that it is best to win, but better to take a defeat, if it comes. without grumbling. A defeat, as Mr. Zalar has taught, is not meant to tear a team down, but rather to point out that the team needs practice, and that no team is ever perfect. As a builder of men Mr. Zalar is "tops"; this can be noted in his results.

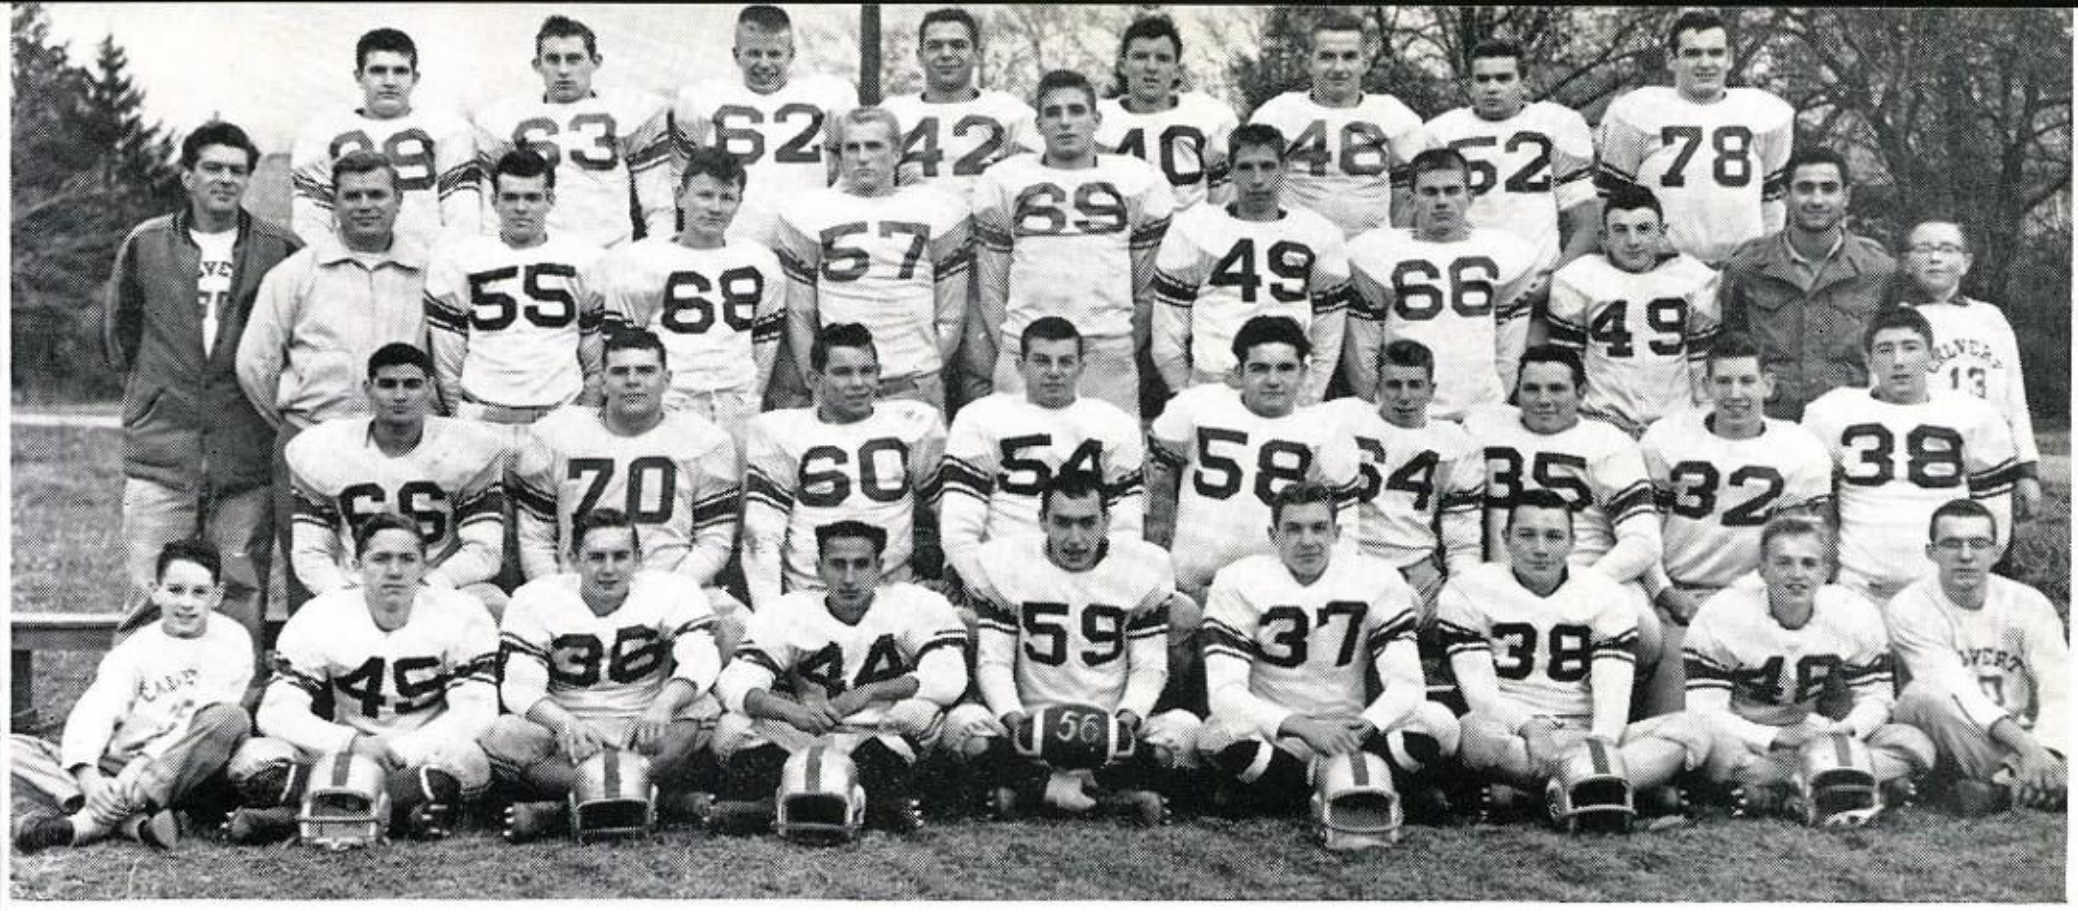
By a "sculptor of freedom" is meant one who forms in another the desire for free expression of his will in what is right and just. In his capacity as civics teacher Mr. Zalar can be called a "sculptor of freedom". Here he enlightens the students regarding the systems of our government, so that they are more capable of understanding just what our heritage of freedom should mean to us. Thus Mr. Zalar has proved two of his many qualifications—he is a very capable teacher and builder of men for the future.

Mr. Joseph "Joe" Kukoy has now served here at Calvert as assistant to "Zip" for four years. In this time he has labored many nights teaching the characteristics of good, hard football and the poise of basketball.

In football he coached the backfield, trying endlessly to inculcate the importance of speed and agility. In basketball he aimed to build a team with lightning-fast reflexes and stamina.

Most important of all, through his fine example, he endeavored to instill in his athletes the tremendous value of good, clean living. During various classes he stressed the benefits of top physical conditioning reached through athletics. He did his best to show the importance of a sterling character and unending determination.

So to you "Joe", we say thanks for doing your part in preparing us for the years to come. We hope that you will continue to teach the same high ideals you strived tirelessly to inspire in us.



Members of the 1956 football squad are: FIRST ROW: Manager Michael Hart, Ronald Rochester, David Masella, Frank Mangiola, John Gatton, Daniel McGowan, Robert Snyder, Michael Huffmon, and Manager Larry Shelt.

THIRD ROW: Assistant Coach Joseph Kukoy, Head Coach Karl Zalar, Vern Fisher, Michael Brickner, Daniel Moran, Gilman Farley, James Dryfuse, Michael McClellan, James Saad, Freshman Coach Anthony Granata, and Assistant Manager James Croy.

FOURTH ROW: Michael McCrory, Richard Bernard, John Houck, George Houck, Michael Leahy, Thomas Huss, Richard Dandurand, and James McNulty.

Gridders Fight Way to 7-2 Record

Playing hard all season, the Calvert gridders finished with a creditable 7-2 record. Doing this they outscored their opponents by a total of 159 points.

After downing Bellevue in a 6-0 win in the Downtown Coaches' Preview game, the Zalarmen marched to Bucyrus only to lose a heartbreaker by the small margin of one point, 7-6.

Coming back hard in the next weekend tussle, the Senecas took an easy victory from the St. Francis Knights of Toledo, 40-12.

After this Calvert's iron men continued to roll and defeated the next four opponents. Going under in the wake were Crestline 41-19; Delphos, 28-19; Holland, 59-13; and the highly touted Fremont Streaks at the first Homecoming Calvert has ever had, 20-7.

Perrysburg then handed the Senecas their second and last defeat in a tight 6-0 battle.

Once more the Z-men came back fighting mad and trounced Mansfield Reserves, 33-0.

In the final game of the season the Senecas once more showed their superior strength by drubbing Sandusky St. Mary's, 48-33.

Fullback Dick Dandurand, voted by his teammates Most Valuable Player, kept the team in the game with his hard running and line-backing.

Sammy Paradiso, voted Outstanding Back, was one of the greatest little backs Calvert ever had; he proved this not only by his great running, but also his key blocks.

Hard blocking lineman, Tom Huss, showed his ability many times by opening the impregnable hole in the defense. Another of his many accomplishments was the placement kicking. For these reasons Boots was elected Outstanding Lineman.

Dan Moran, senior end and three year letterman, was one of the top receivers of junior quarterback, Joe Hunter.

Mike McClellan was one of the four three year lettermen and definitely one of the speediest linemen on the team.

Jack Houck, senior tackle, provided the extra punch needed to come out on top.

Dick Bernard, ex-tackle, was moved to center where he provided the spirit needed to keep the team going.

Dan Fullerton, another of the three year lettermen, was one of the hardest blockers Calvert ever had.

Jim Houck proved to be a great asset to the the team, using his speed and agility to push the ball ahead for that desperately needed yardage.

Backing up this fine talent were: center, Mike Leahy; guards, Mike Brickner and John Leahy; ends, Jack Gatton and Bob Mitten; and quarterback, Jim Dryfuse.

Two juniors on the starting team who during the season proved to be an unbeatable passing combination were Joe Hunter, quarterback, and Gil Farley, end.

Other juniors to letter were guard, Dave Seislove; tackles, Jim McNulty and James Ring; Paul Boes and Mike McCrory, halfbacks; and sophomore Dan McGowan, halfback.

Members of the Calvert Senecas' varsity and reserve basketball team are: First Row: Stanley Hohman, Timothy O'Connell, Sam Paradiso, Joseph Hunter, Fred Hohman, Michael Flynn, Paul Winterhalter, Dan Moran, Gil Farley, and Coach Zalar.
Second Row: Frank Mangiola, Edward Warnement, James Saad, Charles Reinhart, Vern Fisher, Robert Altwies, Tom Rodgers, Dan Cievenger, and Coach Kukoy.

Hardcourt Highlights

Sporting an almost complete reversal to the 1955-56 basketball season of 1 win and 10 losses, the Senecas finished the regular season with a sterling 10-3 record.

This record was even more remarkable considering the fact that the Zalarmen lost their first two games of the season. The highlight of these two games was the brilliant defensive play of Dan Moran and Sam Paradiso in holding Shelby's All-Ohio star, Larry Siegfried, to 24 points, 12 points below his average.

Then Calvert really started rolling with 7 straight victories. In this streak the Senecas just missed the century mark by whipping Marion St. Mary's, 98-72. Dan Moran had 30 points, his high of the season, in this game. The Senecas spoiled Mansfield Madison's debut in their new gym by a 63-48 count. Gil Farley had 31 points. In their 7th victory, the Senecas stopped highly-touted Port Clinton 76-62 as Farley and Paul Winterhalter each had 23 points.

Calvert finished the season, winning 3 of their last 4 games. Fremont St. Joseph, a traditional rival, was conquered 56-50 in this win skein.

Then came tournament time and Calvert drew top seeded Tiffin Columbian which had a 16-1 record for the season. They lost by only 6 points, 67-61, after leading most of the way.

Cagey Seniors

Mike Flynn, a two year letterman, is one of the best set shot artists that Calvert has ever had. The old saying among the seniors, "As Flynn goes, so goes the Senecas," seems to have held true in all the Calvert basketball games. Even though he is only 6'1" in height, he exerts his skill by popping his one-hand set shot from twenty feet out.

Forward Dan Moran will prove to be a great loss to the Seneca cagers next year. In his sophomore year Dan earned a letter. After a hard fought season as a junior, he was voted by his teammates "Most Valuable". In his senior year, he was elected co-captain of the 1957 Calvert team.

On the hardcourt Fred Hohman, a lean six-foot guard, displayed the grace and agility of a cat. Although Fred lettered only in his senior year, he has been on the squad four years. The fact that he is a jump shot artist has proved to be a definite threat to the opposition.

Five foot eight guard, Sam Paradiso, known as one of the play makers of the quintet, was voted the title of co-captain for the 1957 basketball season. Sam was the smallest player on the first five, but he had more spirit than two men and always kept the team on the ball. Best of luck in the future, Sam!

Gil Farley, Calvert's 6'5" junior center, has been elected as the most valuable player of the 1956-57 season. Congratulations, Gil.

Alumni Officers Yearly Report

THE YEAR IN RETROSPECT

The highlight of the 1956-57 Calvert Alumni session was the announcement made by Bishop Rehring of Father Dunn's promotion to principal of Calvert High School. Father Dunn, a graduate of the class of 1934, had served as an assistant here since 1952. This marks the first time that a graduate of Calvert has become its leader.

The Alumni Association wishes to thank Father Shenk, former principal and now pastor at Oak Harbor, for his close cooperation with our group in past years and wishes both him and Father Dunn God's blessings in the future.

Alumni Reunion Day was held June 17 with more than 150 families represented. The day began with a High Mass in the Ursuline Convent Chapel; alumni officers attended the Mass. Retiring president, Dr. Paul France, who addressed the group at the close of the afternoon session, announced the results of the postal ballots for new officers of the association as follows: Thomas Fleck, president, Kathryn Kuebler, vice president, Wayne Amlin, treasurer, Betty Bork, secretary.

That evening, members of the silver anniversary class of 1931 attended a dinner in the school cafeteria. On July 10 the class of 1946 celebrated its 10th anniversary with a highly successful dinner dance at the American Legion Home.

ANNUAL AUTUMN DANCE

Fall football was the theme of the annual dance held Aug. 31 at Meadowbrook Park. More than 375 members and guests attended the event. Special guests were Father Shenk, Father Dunn, Father Ringholz, and Father Dobmeyer of the Bascom parish.

PERMANENT BENEFITS

The presiding officers purchased a steel file for alumni memberships; the file has a capacity of 3,000 cards.

The State of Ohio directs that a minimum of $1 per student be spent annually on books and equipment for the library. The association contributed one half of this requirement, and the Calvert treasury supplied the balance. The officers, on behalf of the Alumni, also purchased a new set of fluorescent lights for the library.

The Alumni Association is proud to have had a part in assisting the Calvert Librarian, Sister Charlotte, and pledges its continued support of the school and its activities.
